

Join us!

We are hosting two side events to the Global Summit to End Sexual Violence in Conflict:

Women's Piece of Peace:
An Interactive Event on Gender and Post-Conflict Negotiations

Wednesday, June 11, 2014 • 6:00 PM- 7:30 PM
London ExCel Center, Discussion Room 6

Women are regularly excluded from peace processes around the world. This interactive event will simulate a peace negotiation, with participants playing the role of opposing parties in a conflict in which sexual violence has been used as a weapon of war, in order to highlight challenges and explore solutions.

When women have a say in governing the world becomes a better place.

Ending Impunity, Inspiring Hope:
Creative Legal Strategies to Combat Rape in War

Thursday, June 12, 2014 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM
London ExCel Center, Discussion Room 5

Despite decades of concerted efforts to end sexual violence in war, it continues undeterred in conflicts globally. This panel will discuss successful, creative legal strategies that have been used around the world to ensure accountability and justice for women victims of sexual violence in armed conflict.

More than half of war rape victims are children.

Speakers:

Janet Benshoof, President, Global Justice Center

Baroness Nicholson, Peer, House of Lords

Judge Hawar Hama Jhursheed Al-Jaf, Former Judge, Iraqi High Tribunal

Fiona Sampson, Executive Director, Equality Effect

Mercy Chidi, Executive Director, Ripples International

Moderator: Baroness Kennedy, Peer, House of Lords

If you would like to attend either event, please RSVP to rsvp@globaljusticecenter.net.

www.globaljusticecenter.net | Follow us on Facebook & Twitter: @globaljusticec